

Sólo Mujeres

exhibition

future landscapes designed by women
paisajes del futuro diseñados por mujeres

FEBRUARY 20th - MARCH 27th, 2009
Mission Cultural Center for Latino Arts

Ana de Orbegoso
"This Crazy Heart / Este Loco Corazón"
Photography
32" x 29.8" x 1"
2001, Edition 1/5

Linda Vallejo

Born in Los Angeles, CA. M.F.A in printmaking from CSULB, 1978. Awards include Durfee Foundation ARC Artist Award 2006 and UCLA Chicano Studies Research Center, Artist Award, 1999. LA Natural History Museum, 2006. Permanent collections: National Museum of Mexican Art, Chicago, IL; Carnegie Art Museum, Oxnard, CA; UC Santa Barbara Library, California Multicultural and Ethnic Archives, and UCLA Chicano Study Research Center. Recent exhibitions: National Museum of Mexican Art, Chicago, IL, 2008, Craft and Folk Art Museum, 2006, L2Kontemporary Gallery, Los Angeles, 2009, Self Help Graphics and Art, Inc., Los Angeles, CA 2008, Municipal Art Gallery, 2008.

Anastasia Schipani

Work larger than life to magnify the world that is and also to create an alternate possibility of a world that could be. At the moment this world is draped in textiles that take the form of large scale tapestries and regalia. In the mid 90's, Anastasia owned and was the curator of the Rouge gallery in San Francisco. A native Bay Area artist, she has shown extensively on the West Coast of North America. She received her B.F.A from the San Francisco Art Institute.

Consuelo J. Underwood

Born in Sacramento, CA, received her B.A and her M.A from San Diego State University in 1981. She has exhibited and lectured nationally and internationally for more than twenty five years. Her work is part of the permanent collections of museums, Smithsonian American Museum of Art; Museum of Art & Design in NY; the National Hispanic Center for the Arts, NM; and the Mexican Museum in San Francisco. She began teaching fiber art at San Jose State University in 1987.

Ana de Orbegoso

Born in Lima, Perú, based in New York. Recent exhibitions: Haydon Arts Center, Lincoln, Nebraska, 2009. "Otoño Fotográfico" en Extremadura, Badajoz, Spain, 2008. "Foto Noviembre" Tenerife, Canary Islands, Spain, 2007. "ICPNA Photography Biennial-Mirafoto", Lima, Perú, 2007; "Descubrimientos PhotoEspaña", Madrid, Spain. Awards: NALAC National Association of Latino Arts & Culture, New York Foundation for the Arts for Photography 08, Otoño Fotográfico de Extremadura, DiscoveriePhotoEspaña 2007.

Zahava Sherez

Born in Argentina, raised in Israel, based in Oakland, CA. She studied at The Hebrew University of Jerusalem and The Avni Institute of Fine Arts in Tel Aviv. Publications: 2007 Best of America Sculpture Artists and Artisans Vol.1, Kennedy Publishing, Williamsburg, Virginia, USA. Her work has been shown throughout the country and is in private and corporate collections around the world.